"The Nana Bee"
Seleem Tarek KG1 I

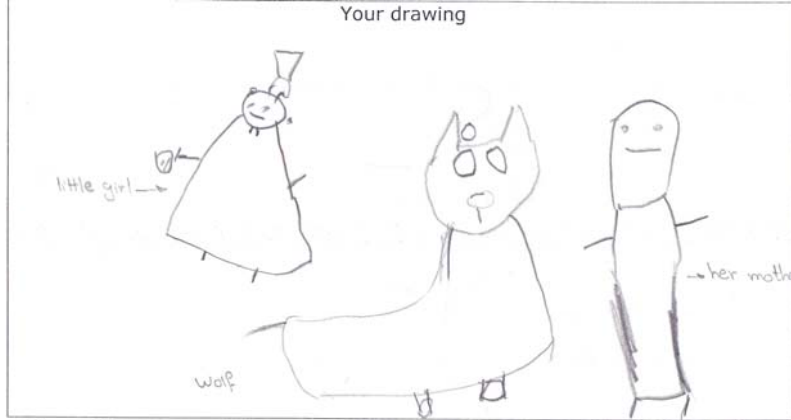

Wow! What a great response!
Last week's family project was a hit! I got lots of fantastic drawings, lots of books have been read - some were traditional fairy tales ("Sleeping Beauty"), some classic stories ("Winnie the Pooh"), even science fiction stories! 😊 I'm reaaaally impressed! 😊

Thank you, Moms and Dads! 😊

Please continue with your reading and send us any picture that your child draws so we can add it to our journals.

Dictation on Sunday: get up, morning, afternoon, night

Make writing fun!

1. Write the words that you know with crayons and display them and display them on the wall in your bedroom or hung them on the fridge.
2. Type the words on the computer , print them and display them too.
3. Write the words (as door, window, desk etc.) and stick them on the real objects around the house.
4. Get a white /black board and coloured whiteboard markers or chalk. Imagine you were a teacher and your teddy bears , dolls and your ... Mommy ☺ - the students. Write the words and let your students "spell" them.

Isn't it fun? ☺ ☺ ☺
